

UC Application Workshop

Saturday, October 28

9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m.

Come to UCI's campus for a UC application workshop designed specifically for African-American high school students being held in conjunction with our Fall Preview Day on Saturday, October 28.

Discover what the university is looking for in a prospective student's application and how you can make yours stand out. Obtain tips for writing personal insight responses that persuasively promote you and your accomplishments and learn how to increase your opportunity for scholarships and financial aid consideration. The workshop is free.

The workshop will be held in the Crystal Cove Auditorium in the Student Center. Parking is free in the Student Center Parking Structure. Please enter the campus at the corner of Campus Drive and West Peltason Drive. Maps and directions are available at uci.edu/visit/maps.

After the workshop, plan to spend the day on campus for our Fall Preview Day. Explore campus, engage with students, and learn more about our renowned academic programs and student services. Questions? Call 949-824-6705.

Register at apply.admissions.uci.edu/register/AfAmWorkshop2017